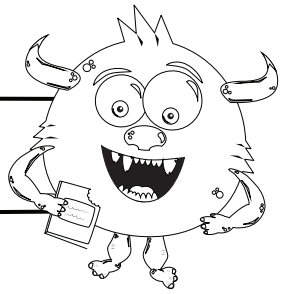
You Can Be An Author



You can be an author! Choose a main character and a setting (where the story takes place). Then you'll need to decide on a plot (what happens in the story), including the climax (the most important event in the story) and the resolution (what happens in the end).

If you need some help, ask an adult or friend to help you write down your story. If you need some more space, you can use additional sheets of paper.

My Story

WORD CHALLENGE: Have you learned some new words lately? Try using those new words in your story. Here are some suggestions: gobble, cool, summer, adventure, curious.