

Conversation Jar

Encourage family talk with this fun activity!

First, print off this sheet on letter size paper. Fill in the blank boxes with your own questions. Cut out all the messages. Place these small slips of paper in a jar in the center of the table. During family time, ask the children to draw slips of paper from the jar. Help the children to enjoy the activity with full family participation in answering the questions.

Decorating a jar with colored paper and ribbons can be an excellent way to get children involved in family activities.

If you could have anything for dinner in the world, what would you have?	What is your favorite place in the whole wide world and why?	What is your very favorite book and why?
What is the one thing you think should be invented to make your life easier or more enjoyable?	What can you do to make a difference in the community?	If you had three wishes, what would they be?
What would you do if you were the president?	If you won a million dollars, what would you do with it?	What do you like best about life?
Tell us one thing that is really important to you.	Tell us about something that makes you laugh.	What is one thing you could do to help our family?
Tell us what things make you feel loved.	If you could be any animal, what animal would you be?	What was the very best thing that happened to you today?
