There's more to explore at pbskids.org
1) Choose a book. Invite a parent, grandparent, or friend to read it with you and take turns reading out loud.

2) Talk about the book together:
   • Name the characters in the book.
   ____________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________
   • Describe the plot of the book.
   ____________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________________
   • Explain how the story ends.
