

The Lonely Giant

Once there was a little dog who was black and white with a pink collar. One day she went out for a stroll.

She was going down the sidewalk and the little dog saw a dog which looked like a giant coming her way. He was black with one white dot on the tip of his tail. He barked to the little dog "Get out of my way!". The little dog moved.

That's not nice she thought, so she walked to her friend. She paid Collie beefy bites to scare the giant away. Although, would it work?

The giant snarled, "Go away!". It did not work, Collie was scared and ran.

Little dog sighed, finally she came up with a great idea. Maybe the big dog just didn't have any friends?

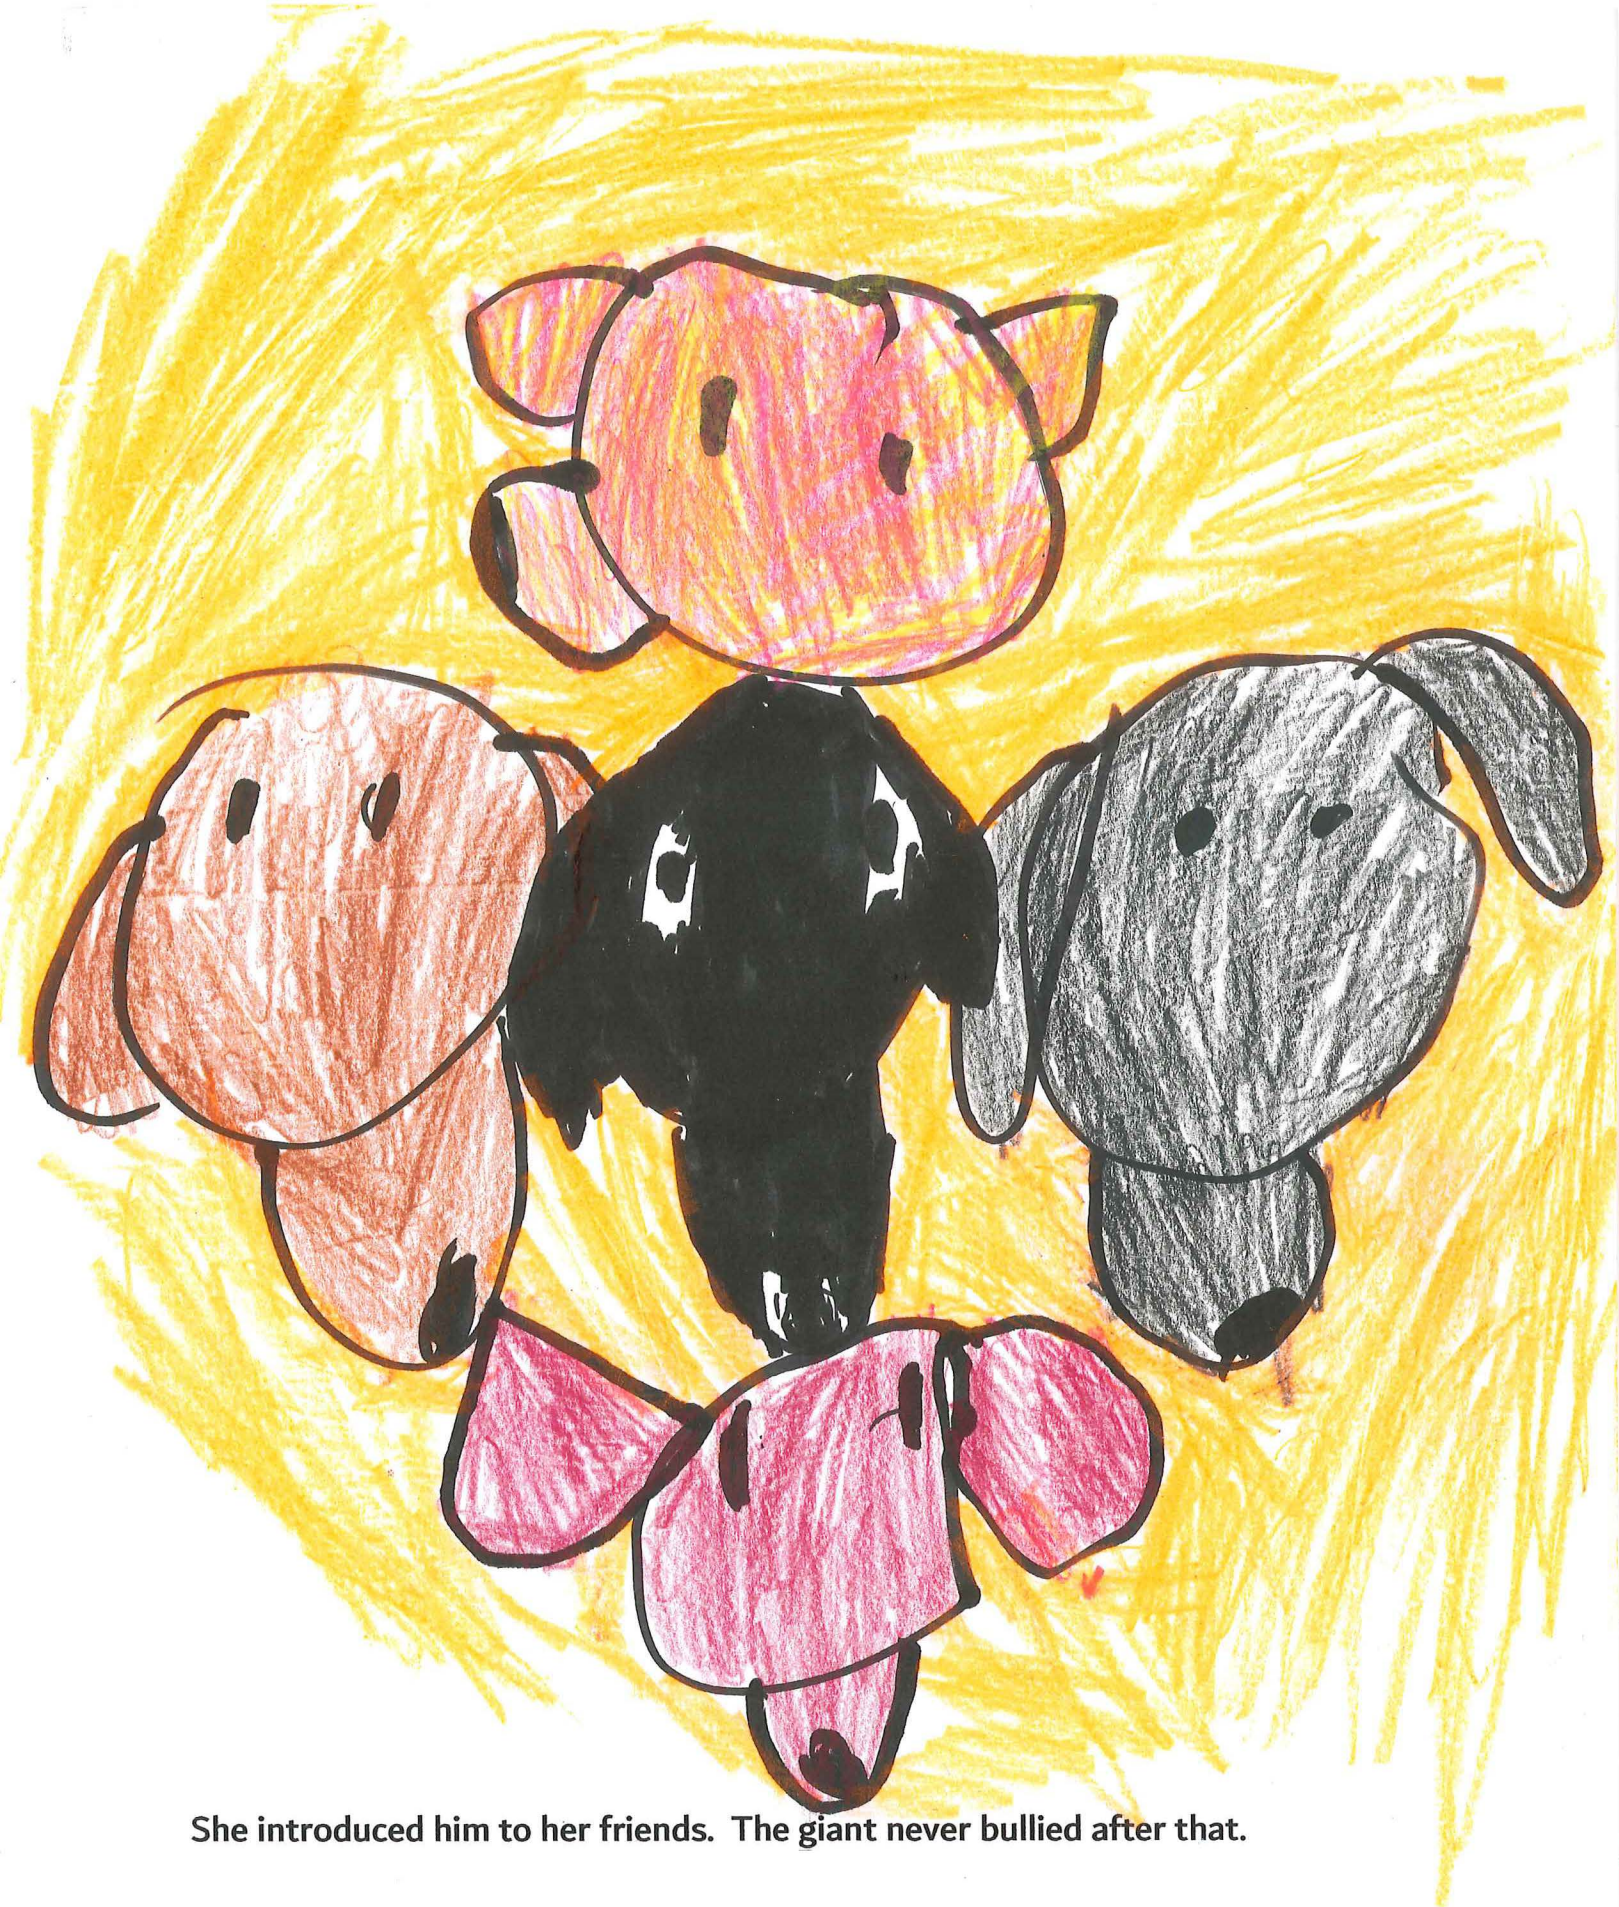

She asked her friends if they wanted to meet a giant. They said, "Yes!".

They found him at the crowded dog park under a tree. Little dog yodeled and the giant looked up. She said, "Do you want friends?" The giant said, "How did you know?" She said, "I have been watching and you seem lonely."

She introduced him to her friends. The giant never bullied after that.
