

S'more Camping

with Nelly

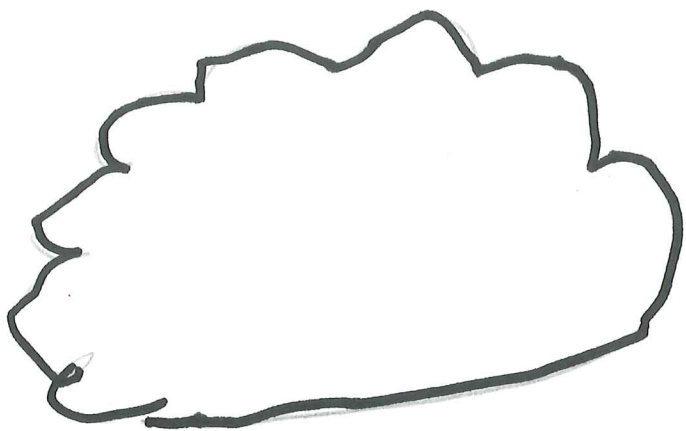

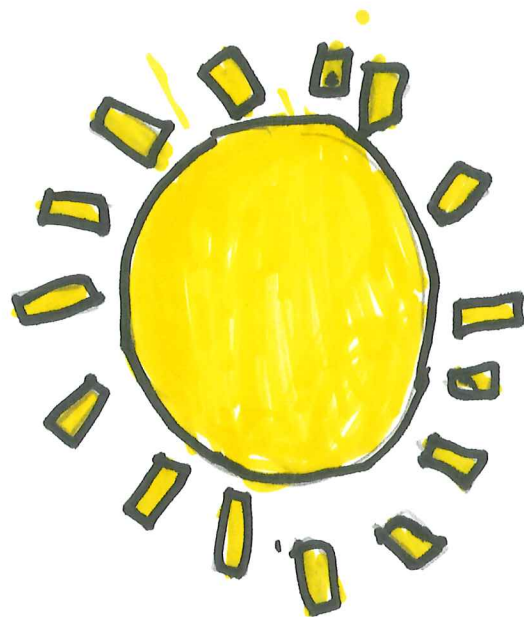

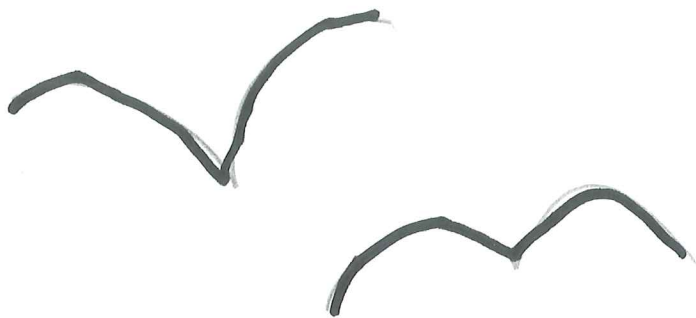

One day, Nelly was sitting outside reading a good book when her parents called out, "Hop in the car, we have a surprise for you!"

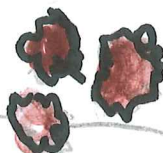

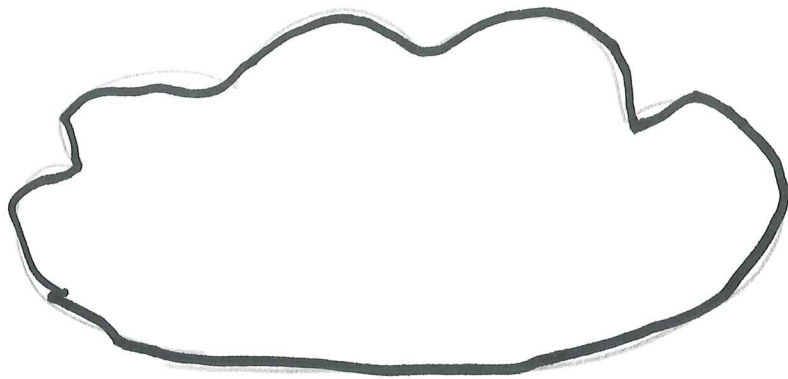

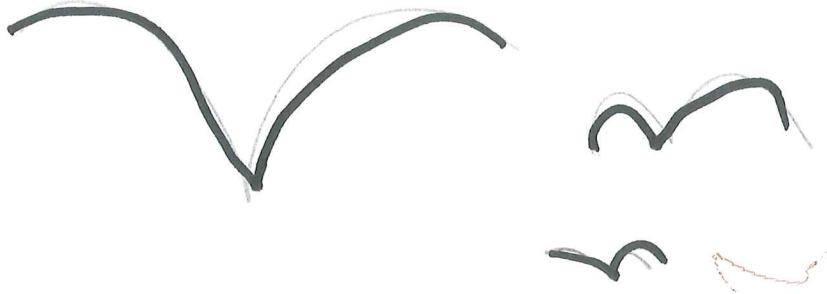

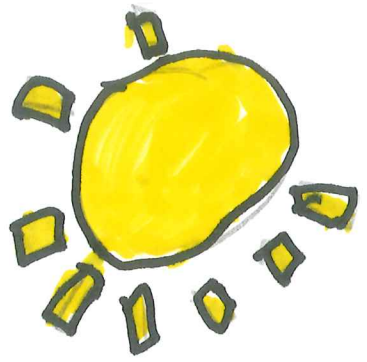

When they arrived at their destination, Nelly realized they were camping at one of their favorite places, Crooked Creek! As they were unpacking, Nelly saw another car pull up. Inside were her best friends, the twins Lizzie and Maye, and their parents! And they brought stuff to make s'mores!

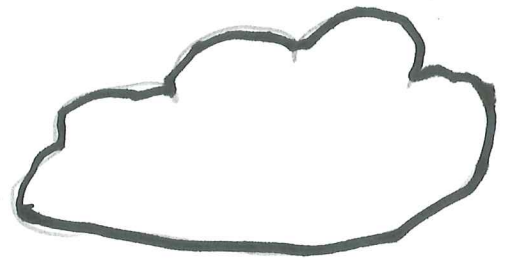

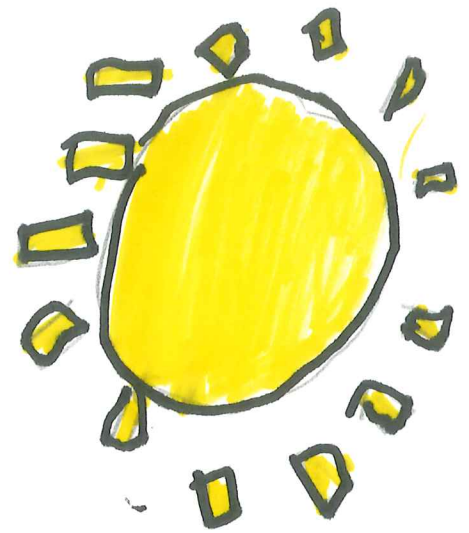

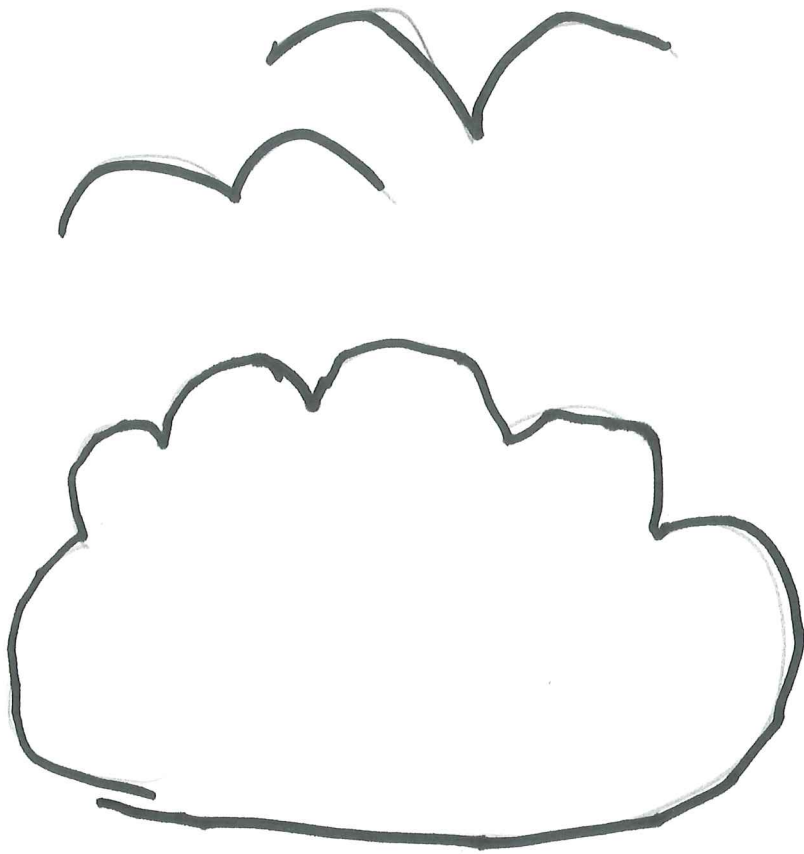

Their dads took the girls fishing. When they got back, they noticed the graham crackers were gone! "Oh no!" said Lizzie. "What are we going to do?"

Everyone decided to go on a hike. When they got back, Maye said, "Oh, no, the chocolate bars are missing! What are we going to do?"

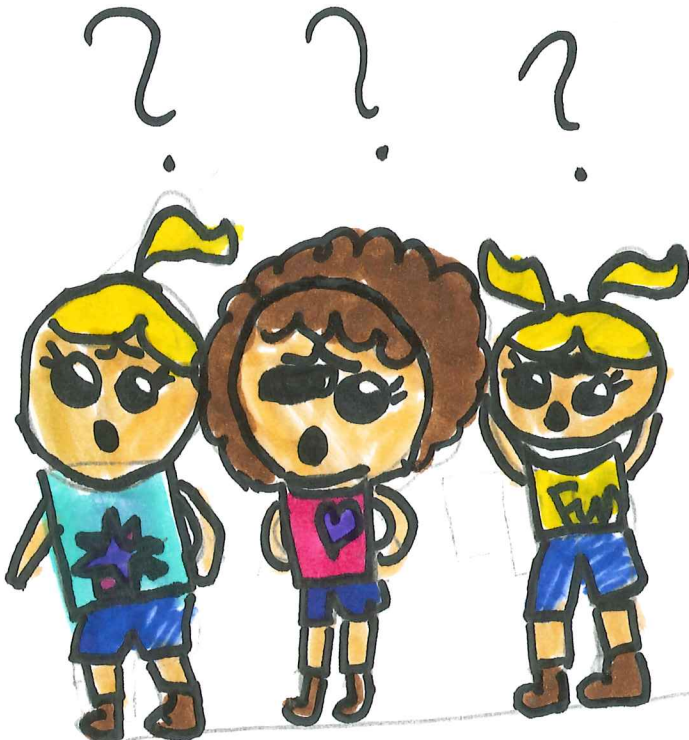

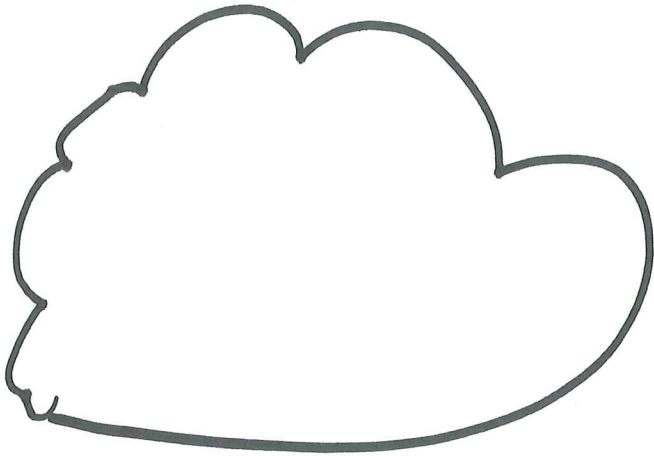

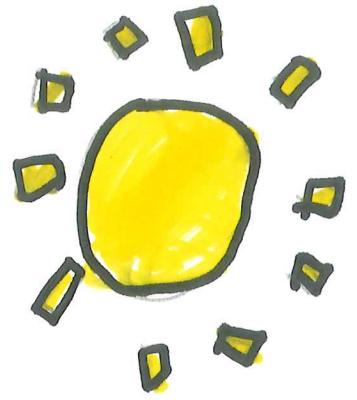

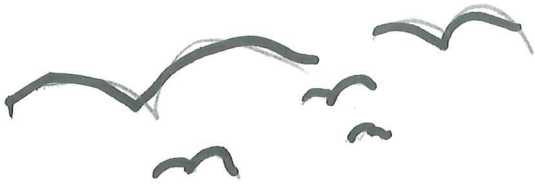

Since it was so hot out, the moms said, "Let's go swim in the creek." When they got back from swimming, Nelly said, "Oh no! What are we going to do?" The marshmallows were gone.

Just then, the girls found a clue! They found cracker crumbs that led to chocolate bar wrappers, which led to a trail of marshmallows, which led them to their dads at the campfire.

Nelly noticed her dad had marshmallows stuck to his mustache. Lizzie noticed her dad had crumbs in his beard. And Maye noticed both of them had chocolate on their shirts. The girls solved the mystery! "Dad! It was you who took our s'mores!" said the girls. The dads said, "We needed something sweet to eat!"

Just then, their moms showed up with backups! "Moms to the rescue!" chanted the girls. And the girls sat around the campfire with their family and finally made their s'mores.
